KENAI PENINSULA BUILDERS ASSOCIATION

Let's talk advocacy.

Being part of a professional trade organization means you have representation.

Your voice is heard in the residential home building industry. Activities in local and state governments, federal agencies, courts and Congress are actively engaged in by members of KPBA, ASHBA, and NAHB.

NAHB is actively involved to keep the housing industry a priority in the public policy arena. Being a member not only ensures you have access to the latest news, trends and issues, it strengthens the voice of the industry where it matters, with our local, state and national decision-makers.
