

KENAI PENINSULA BUILDERS ASSOCIATION

Now is the Best Time to Join KPBA

Our community has plenty of work for our members, but often, the demand is high and the amount of available skilled labor is not. We are advocates for our members.

The Pros

Key takeaways:

- Trifecta of Memberships
- Advocacy
- Education
- Member Relationships
- Community Involvement
- Discounts and Rebates
- And More!

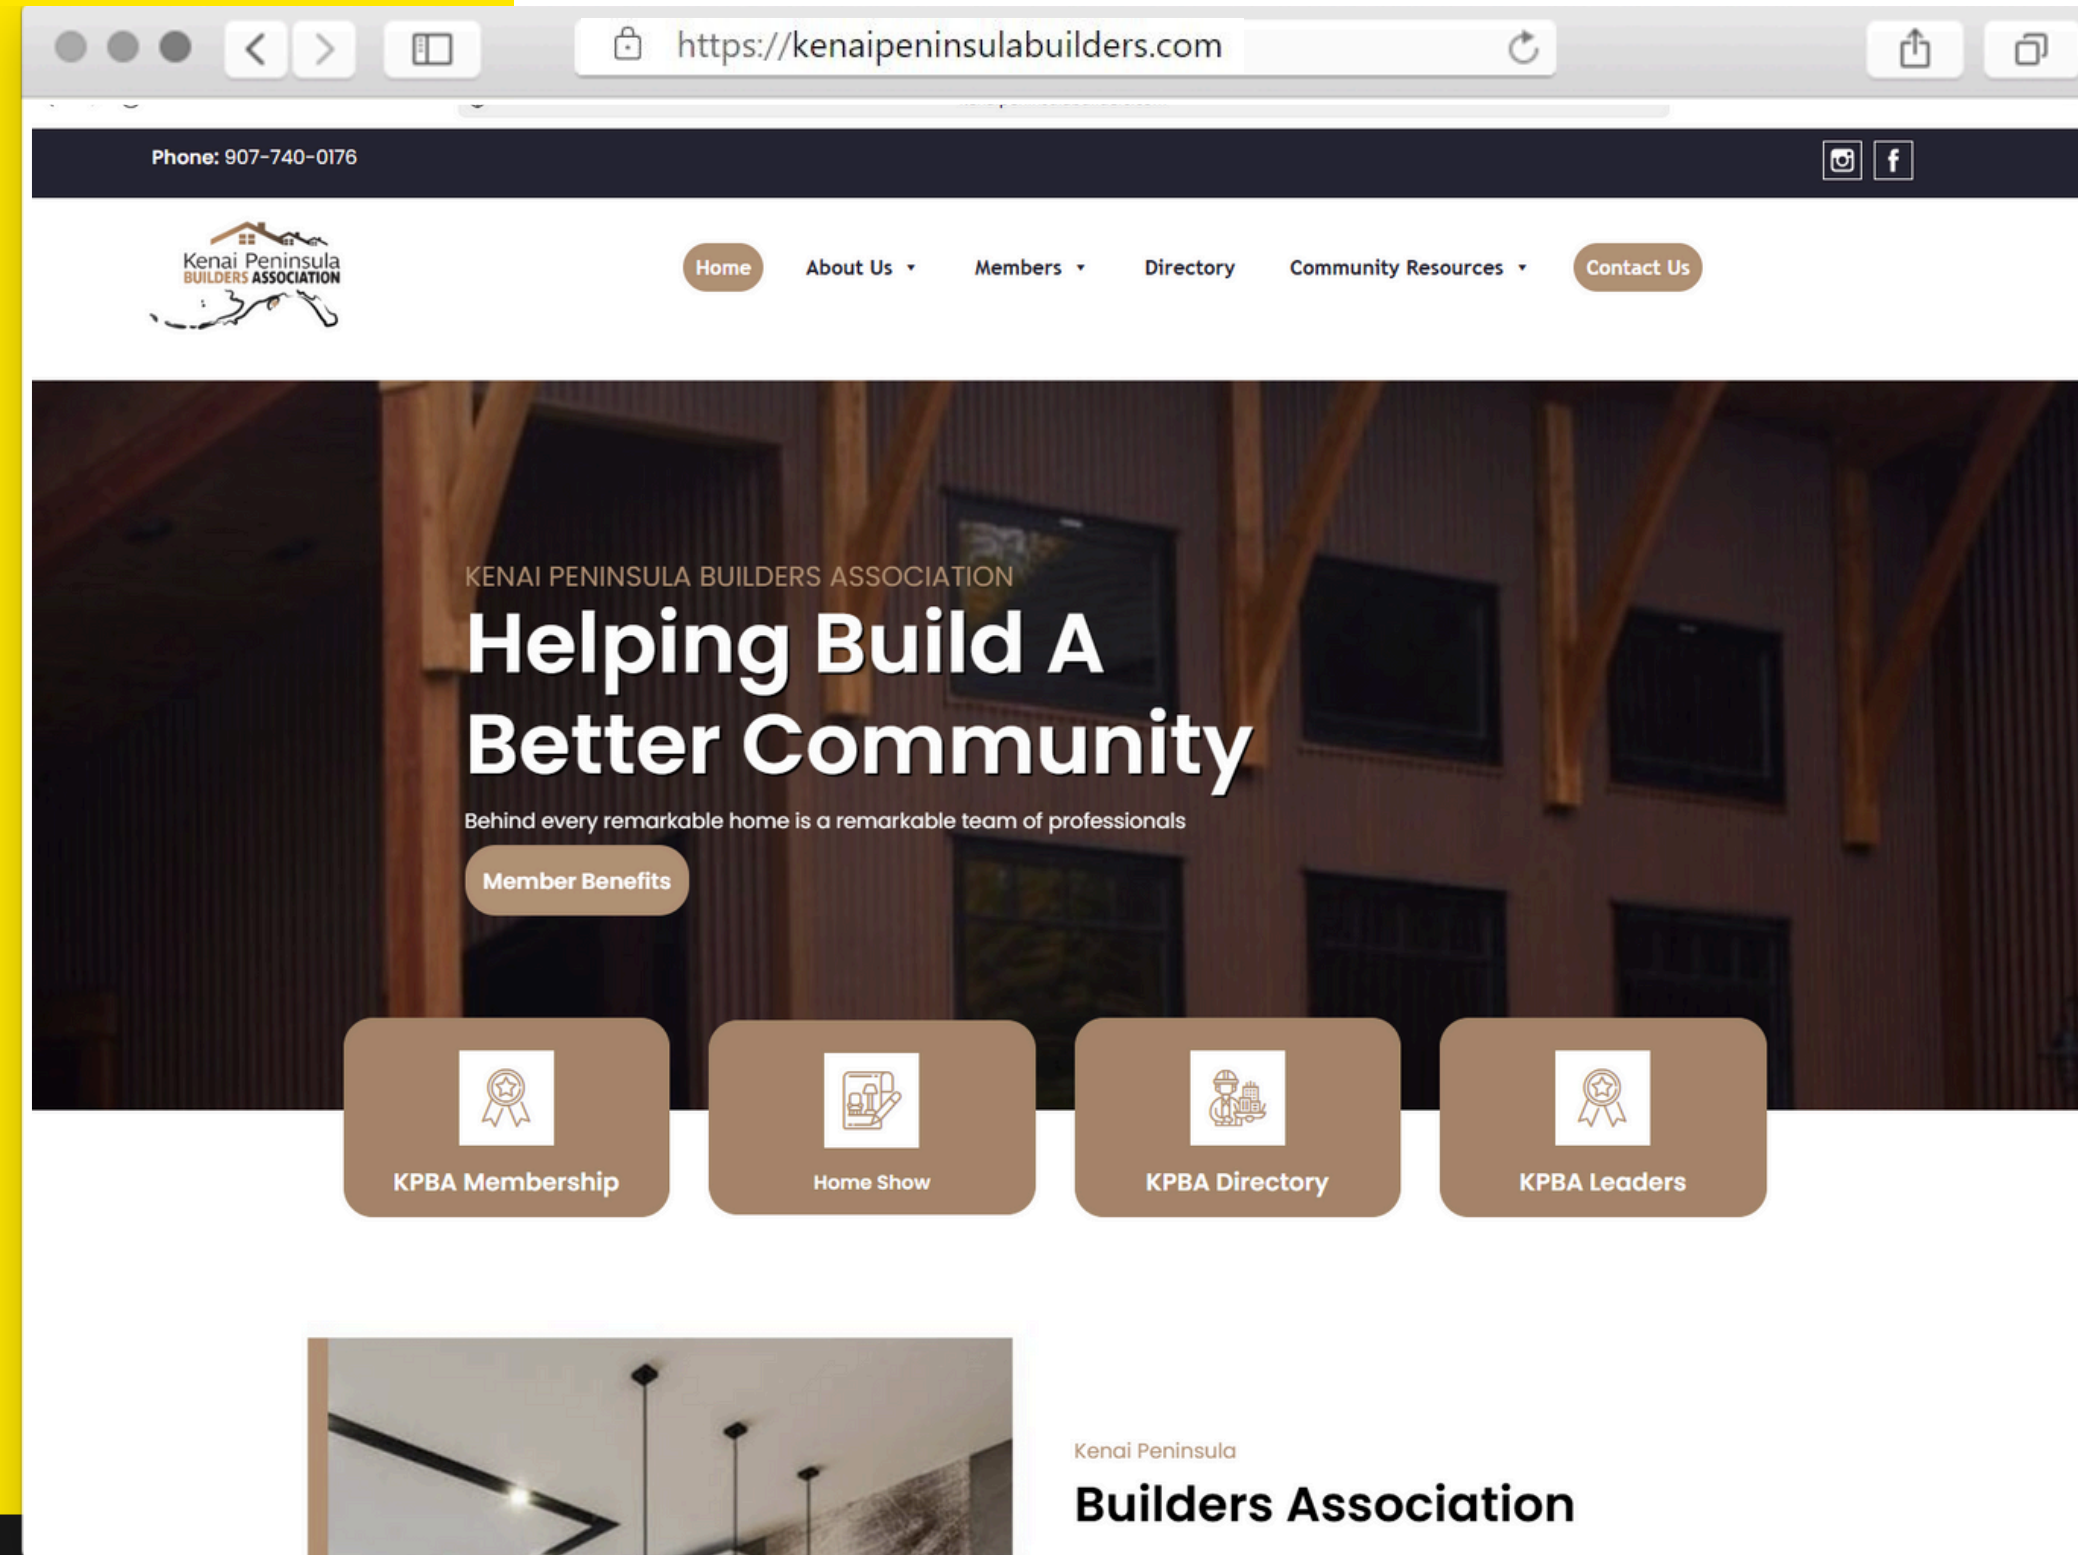

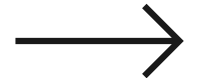

The Trifecta.

Local, state and national membership.

At the local level, enjoy member-to-member relationships, community involvement and events. Alaska State Home Building Association, ASHBA, membership includes rebates, educational opportunities and State advocacy – have a voice in the decisions that impact Alaska home building. National Association of Home Builders, NAHB, membership includes advocacy, discounts, networking, and more!

Let's talk advocacy.

Being part of a professional trade organization means you have representation.

Your voice is heard in the residential home building industry. Activities in local and state governments, federal agencies, courts and Congress are actively engaged in by members of KPBA, ASHBA, and NAHB.

NAHB is actively involved to keep the housing industry a priority in the public policy arena. Being a member not only ensures you have access to the latest news, trends and issues, it strengthens the voice of the industry where it matters, with our local, state and national decision-makers.

Education

Local

Join us for regular membership meetings that include guest speakers with meaningful messages to educate our members and community.

State

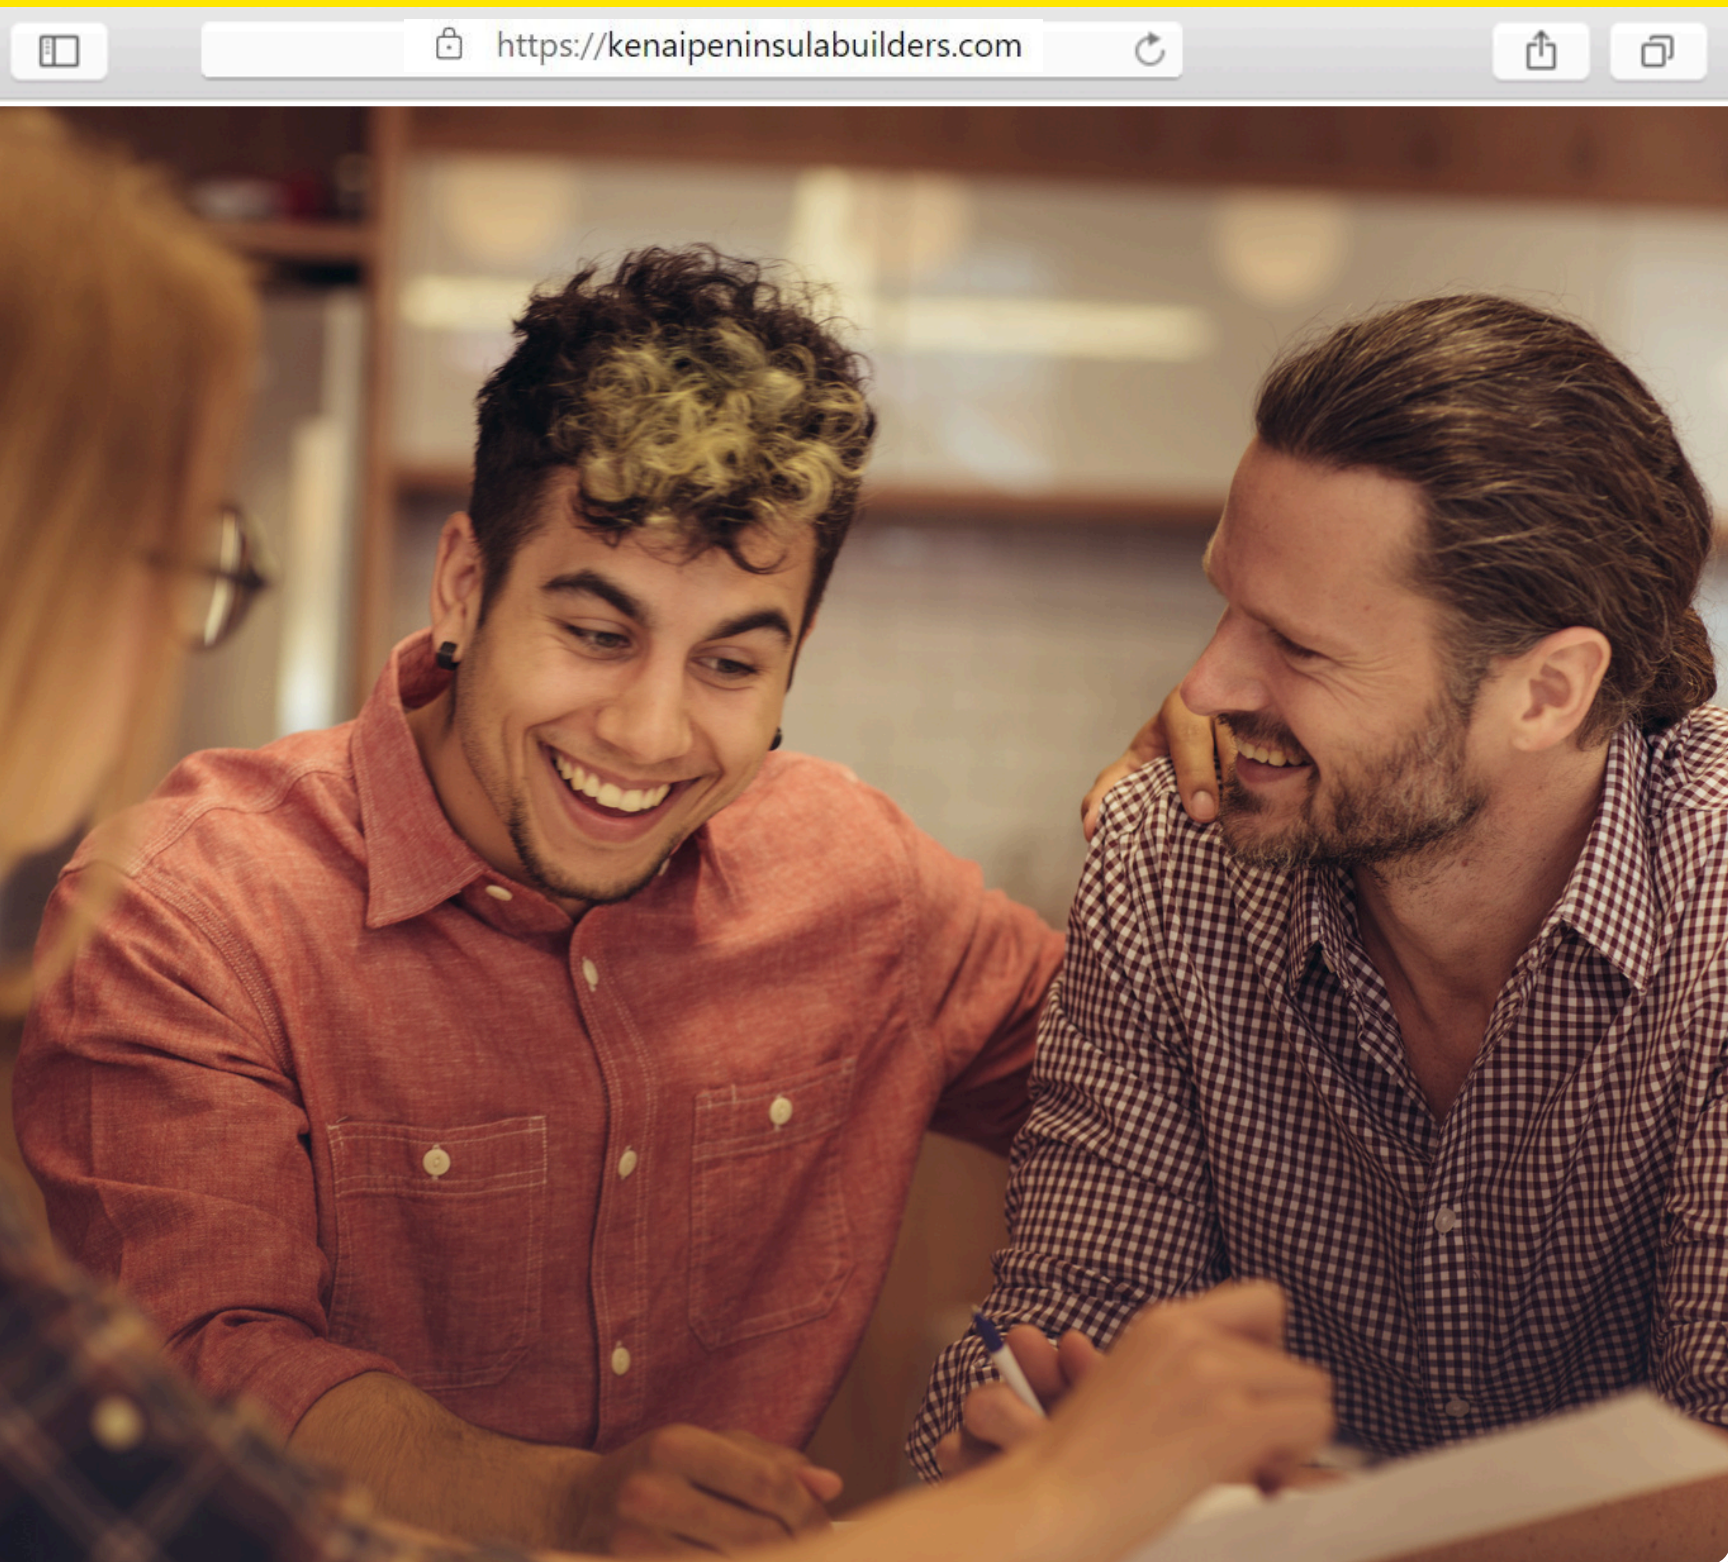

Continuing education classes held annually with member-discounts. Newsletters and updates from the capital.

National

Online courses and webinars, 15-minute presentations, all available to suit your needs.

Member-to-Member

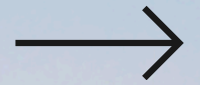

Relationships

Our members come together not just at meetings or annual events, but as experts with solid advice, sounding boards, tried-and-true methods, pillars in the community, helping hands, and great friendships.

Community Involvement

You work. You have responsibilities.
You want to make a difference.

Be part of an organization that takes its place in the community seriously. KPBA strives to foster relationships with our community members. We participate in local events that give back to the community and host annual fundraisers to support causes near and dear to our members. Be it local charities or youth outreach, KPBA is actively seeking ways to do more.
