Dues payments to the Kenai Peninsula Builders Association are NOT deductible as charitable contributions for Federal Tax purposes. However, a percentage of the dues payments may be deductible by members as an ordinary and necessary business expense, subject to an exclusion for lobbying activity – check with your accountant. Because a portion of your dues is used for lobbying by the National Association of Home Builders ($20.02) and the Alaska State Home Building Association ($42.00), a total of $62.02 is not deductible for your income tax purposes.

We update our membership directory monthly. Please submit a copy of your logo to us via email or text. Include exactly how you would like to be listed (i.e. if you do not want your address published, etc.). You are authorized THREE categories in the printed member directory. Select your top three by writing the number of importance (1, 2 or 3) in the box to the left of the category. Place an "X" in all other categories you would like your business listed in for the online searchable directory. Write suggestions in the for unlisted categories if you need to.
